Linking Southwest Heritage Through Archaeology 2020
Student Application Form

The Linking Southwest Heritage Through Archaeology (LSWHTA) program works with youth who demonstrate an interest in learning about the field of archaeology and have a cultural or historical connection to the Greater Southwest. To be considered, please complete this application entirely and submit it by scanning and emailing all pages to swheritage.arizona.edu or reaching out to arrange an alternative.

Eligibility Requirements:
- Be in 10th or 11th grade during the 2019 – 2020 academic school year
- Have an interest in learning about the rich history and heritage of the Southwest, by using the field of archaeology as a tool.

Participant Benefits:
- Visit numerous university laboratories, archaeological sites, National Park Service Locations, and museums and cultural centers throughout Arizona.
- Participate in multiple camping trips, including one at the Grand Canyon!
- Gain hands-on experience and participate in an archaeological dig at a field school in New Mexico.
- Get an Apple iPad and learn how to use it as a tool for documenting your experience, all participants get to keep the iPad once they complete all program requirements.
- Gain exposure to the University of Arizona campus and learn about numerous potential fields of study or occupations.

Provided by LSWHTA Program:
- Transportation to and from all site locations.
- Camping gear, such as tents, sleeping bags, sleeping pads, etc.
- All meals are covered by the program and accommodating to anyone with a food allergy.
- Costs of admission to any National Parks, museums, or cultural centers.

Requirements of Participation:
- Attend all calendar events provided on the 2020 program schedule.
- Actively participate in all program activities.
- Complete a pretest and posttest survey.
- Create a final reflection multimodal production (we help you create it!).

Application Checklist:
- Application Form
- 400 – 500 Word Essay
- 2 Letters of Recommendation
- Copy of unofficial transcripts or recent report cards

Priority deadline is December 12, 2019
Final deadline is January 17, 2020

Note: In the event of a large applicant pool, students who submitted a full application by the priority deadline or are in 11th grade may be given priority
